

The ACADEMIC SUCCESS CENTER (ASC) creates opportunities for students to learn how to learn throughout their academic careers. College coursework can vary widely between disciplines. In ALS 116, you can try new study strategies, explore the science of learning — how our brains learn and remember best — and hear from and share experiences with your peers.

Offered in person and online:

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION (SI):

Group study tables for historically challenging courses. Register week 1 of the term. See supported courses @ success.oregonstate.edu/si-registration.

We know that group study can be an effective way to learn material. We also know it can be hard to start and maintain successful study groups. SI trains the leaders, creates the groups, and designs the learning activities. Check success.oregonstate.edu/si for supported courses.
